

CHANGES TO FALL 2004 SCHEDULE OF CLASSES

CANCELLED COURSES/SECTIONS

The following Fall courses/sections have been canceled due to low enrollment:

Appellate Courts & Procedure (223-001): MWTh 1:55-2:50 pm, Prof. Steinman.

E-Commerce (215-001): TuWF 9:35-10:30 am, Prof. Warner. (Note: This course has been added to the preliminary Spring 2005 day schedule.)

Energy Law (232-001): TThF 10:40-11:35 am, Prof. Bosselman. (Note: This course has been added to the preliminary Spring 2005 schedule in a 4:00 pm slot.)

Intellectual Property & Technology Licensing (281-052): Th 6:00-7:50 pm, Prof. McElwee. (Note: the 051 section of this course has not been canceled).

Legal Writing 4: Intellectual Property (432-052): MW 7:35-9:00 pm, Prof. Gnoffo.

Legal Writing 4: Estate Planning & Administration (432-053): TTh 6:00-7:25 pm, Prof. Miller.

State Constitutional Law (course/seminar; 287-001 & 609-001): Tu 4:00-5:50 pm, Prof. Koehler.

NEW COURSES/SECTIONS

The following Fall courses/sections were added after the issuance of the Fall schedule:

Advanced Antitrust seminar (636-071): Mondays, 4:00-5:50 pm, Prof. Leslie.

Redesigning the Health Care System seminar (620-071): Mondays, 4:00-5:50 pm, Prof. Richardson.

Economic Development in Countries in Transition seminar (637-071): Meeting time TBA (first meeting will be Wednesday, August 25, 3:00-4:00, conf. rm. near Dean Sowle's office), Prof. Perritt & Dr. Besim Beqaj.

OTHER CHANGES

Legal Writing 3 (431-007): This section, formerly scheduled for TTh 4:00-4:55 pm, will now meet Th 4:00-5:50 pm. It will be taught by Prof. Gill.

Legal Writing 3 (431-008): This section, formerly scheduled for TTh 4:00-4:55 pm, will now meet Tu 4:00-5:50 pm. It will be taught by Prof. Morris.

Remedies (280-001 & 280-051): The evening section will now be taught by Prof. Eglit (not Prof. Gillis). The exam for the day section has been changed to Mon., 12/13/04, 6:00 pm (the same time as the exam for the evening section).