Legal Writing 3 and Legal Writing 4

Full-time Day Division students are required to take Legal Writing 3 and Legal Writing 4 during their second year. Legal Writing 3 provides an introduction to researching and writing about non-litigation transactional issues and documents, with additional emphasis on oral communication with colleagues and clients. All sections of Legal Writing 3 are offered as General Practice sections. Legal Writing 4 focuses on advanced research and writing skills in a variety of doctrinal areas and on creating legal instruments common to these areas. All second-year Day Division students were required to take Legal Writing 3 in the Fall semester, except for those who took a Legal Writing 4 equivalent course (e.g., certain Law Review students). Students who took such an equivalent course in the Fall and deferred Legal Writing 3 must register for Legal Writing 3 in the Spring semester. All other second-year Day Division students must register for Legal Writing 4 in the Spring semester. Note: Additional sections of both Legal Writing 3 and Legal Writing 4 are listed on the Evening Division schedule.

DAY DIVISION ELECTIVE COURSES

Seminars, Clinical Education courses, Trial Advocacy, and intra-curricular activities are listed after the Evening Division schedule. For further information on recommended courses, see the section entitled "List of Recommended Courses" in the Registration Bulletin. Please note: In addition to the courses listed here, Day Division students may also take Evening Division courses, but only if at least one-half of their credit hours in a particular semester consist of Day Division courses. Courses that meet at 4:00 p.m. (with section numbers of "071") are considered both Day Division and Evening Division courses. Except for the Saturday sections of Trial Advocacy, all Trial Advocacy courses are considered Evening Division courses.

EVENING DIVISION ELECTIVE COURSES

Seminars, Clinical Education courses, Trial Advocacy, and intra-curricular activities are listed after the Evening Division schedule. For further information on recommended courses, see the section entitled "List of Recommended Courses" earlier in this Registration Bulletin. Please note: In addition to the courses listed here, Evening Division students may also take Day Division courses, but only if at least one-half of their credit hours in a particular semester consist of Evening Division courses. Courses that meet at 4:00 p.m. (with section numbers of "071") are considered both Day Division and Evening Division courses. Except for the Saturday sections of Trial Advocacy, all Trial Advocacy courses are considered Evening Division courses.

TRIAL ADVOCACY

Most Trial Advocacy sections will meet in the Daley Civic Center; some will meet in the Law School courtroom. For both Trial Advocacy 1 and 2, there are several sections in each time slot. Your section and instructor will be assigned by the Registrar. In addition to the basic Trial Advocacy 1 and 2 courses, we also offer Litigation Technology, which focuses on integrating technology into trial practice, and Intellectual Property Trial Advocacy. See the Evening Division Elective Course schedules for these two courses.
