

GUANTANAMO NATIONAL TEACH-IN
October 5, 2006

Schedule for Chicago-Kent College of Law

Session One: 9:00-9:45

Internet feed

Welcome, Mark Denbeaux, Professor, Seton Hall Law School

Introduction, Baher Azmy, Professor, Seton Hall Law School

Guantanamo: A Primer

Joseph Margulies, Northwestern University School of Law, author, Guantanamo and the Abuse of Presidential Power

Session Two: 10:00-11:00

Chicago-Kent sponsored speakers

The Legalities of Guantanamo Before and After Hamdan

Speakers: Dean Harold Krent, Professor Mark Rosen

Session Three: 11:15-12:00

Chicago-Kent sponsored student panel

Reactions to Guantanamo

Moderator: Professor Daniel Hamilton

Session Four: 12:45-1:45

Chicago-Kent sponsored speakers

International Legal and Political Implications of Guantanamo

Speakers: Professor Bartram Brown, Professor Henry Perritt

Session Six: 2:00-3:15

Internet feed

American Detention Policy: The Next Frontier

Gita Guitierrez, Center for Constitutional Rights; John Sifton, Human Rights Watch; Professor Meg Satterthwaite, NYU School of Law. Moderator: Jonathan Hafetz, Brennan Center for Justice, NYU School of Law

Habeas Interlude: 3:15-3:30

Internet feed

David Remes, Covington and Burling (Military in Civil Society)

Session Seven: 3:30-4:45

Internet feed

The Military and the Commander-in-Chief

Rear Admiral Don Guter (Ret.), Dean, Duquesne Law School; Commander Charles Swift, Counsel, Hamdan v. Rumsfeld; Colonel Dwight H. Sullivan, USMC, Chief Military Defense Counsel, Military Commissions. Moderator: Ronald W. Meister, Esq., Frmr. Naval Assistant Judge Advocate General

Habeas Interlude: 4:45-5:00

Internet feed

Voices of Guantanamo

Chicago-Kent Closing: 5:00-5:15

"It is a constitution we are expounding:" Guantanamo and the Rule of Law

Speaker: Professor Sheldon Nahmod

RECEPTION