

COURSE INFORMATION UPDATES – FALL 2007

(revised 8/20/07)

This document lists all changes to the Fall 2007 class schedule since the initial registration period.

CANCELLED COURSES/SECTIONS

The following Fall courses/sections have been canceled due to low enrollment:

Appellate Courts & Procedure (223-001): MTTh 1:55-2:50 pm.

Consumer Health Benefits (378-051 and 614-051): W 7:35-9:25 pm.

Federal Courts (370-051): TTh 8:00-9:25 pm.

Legal Writing 3 (431-005): MW 11:45-12:40 pm (two other sections meeting at the same day/times are still on the schedule).

State & Local Government Law (245-001): W 9:45-11:35 am.

State Constitutional Law (609-081): W 4:00-5:50 pm.

NEW COURSES/SECTIONS

The following courses/sections have been added to the Fall 2007 schedule since the initial registration period:

Legal Writing 3 (431-012): TTh 8:30-9:25 am, 1 credit. Prof. Mulherin.

Legal Writing 3 (431-013): M 9:35-10:30 am, W 8:30-9:25 am, 1 credit. Prof. Schragger.

Family Law LL.M. courses: The final page of the Fall schedule now lists the graduate Family Law courses that will be offered this Fall: Financial Aspects of Divorce; Advanced Family Law Practice & Procedure; and Children & Divorce. J.D. students may take these classes without special permission.

OTHER CHANGES

Genetics & the Law – now Patenting Human Genes in Europe and the U.S. (298-081), M 4:00-5:50pm: We have learned that the course being offered by Prof. Minssen, visiting this Fall from Sweden, will be more narrowly focused than we initially thought (see new title just above). A course description is available online (go to the Fall 2007 Term Information Page and click on the Course Descriptions link).

Legal Writing 3 (431-001), MW 8:30-9:25 am: This section will now be taught by Prof. Calvin (not Prof. Goldberg).

Prof. Dinwoodie's Courses: All of Prof. Dinwoodie's Fall courses (Copyright Law, Trademarks & Unfair Competition, and International I.P. Litigation) will have take-home exams.

Representing Venture Capital-Backed Companies (463-081), W 4:00-5:50 pm: This course was formerly titled Legal Aspects of Startups. Students who have taken Legal Aspects of Startups may not take this class.
