

COURSE INFORMATION UPDATES – FALL 2008

(revised 9/8/08)

This document lists all changes to the Fall 2008 class schedule since the initial registration period.

CANCELLED COURSES/SECTIONS

The following Fall 2008 courses/sections have been canceled due to low enrollment:

Consumer Protection Law (212-081): W 4:00-5:25 pm.

I.P. & Technology Licensing (281-051): Th 6:00-7:50 pm

Legal Writing 3 (Prof. Schrage) (431-002): MW 9:35-10:30 am.

Legal Writing 3 (Prof. Winslow) 431-011): TTh 5:00-5:55 pm.

Tax-Exempt Organizations (LL.M. class) (Prof. Clark): M 5:50-7:30pm.

Trial Advocacy 2 (Prof. Fletcher) (558-058): Sat. 9:00-12:00 noon.

Workers Compensation (398-081): W 4:00-5:25 pm.

NEW COURSES/SECTIONS

The following courses/sections have been added to the Fall 2008 schedule since the initial registration period:

Business Transactions Clinic (516-001): For information about this new clinic, contact Prof. Gary Laser.

OTHER CHANGES

Civil Procedure (258-051) and Legislative Process (206-051): The exams in these second-year evening classes have been switched. The new dates are as follows:

Civil Procedure: Friday, December 19, 6:00

Legislative Process: Friday, December 12, 6:00

Illinois Civil Procedure (413-081): Pass/fail is not available for this class.

Legal Writing 3 (431-005): Prof. Farber will teach this section in place of Prof. Nawrocki.

Practice Before the Federal Circuit (271-051): This course will be taught by Prof. Mickie Piatt and Jason DuMont (not Profs. Hulbert and Cavan).

Tax Policy (491-081): There will be no final exam in this class. This class may also be taken as a seminar (using the course no. 649-081).