The Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education (IICLE®) is an independent not-for-profit 501(c)(3) corporation dedicated to the professional development of Illinois attorneys. We accomplish our mission through the presentation of continuing legal education programs designed by and for Illinois attorneys; the publication of comprehensive practice handbooks designed by and for Illinois attorneys; and the continued development and maintenance of additional legal resources designed to enhance Illinois law practice. Every year since 1961, hundreds of volunteer practicing attorneys contribute their time and talent to developing IICLE® resources.

The Institute is pleased to announce that it will select one law student at each of the following law schools to serve as an IICLE® Student Ambassador for the 2019-2020 academic year:

Chicago Kent College of Law
Depaul University College of Law
John Marshall Law School
Loyola University Chicago School of Law
Northern Illinois University College of Law
Northwestern University School of Law
St. Louis University School of Law
Southern University School of Law
University of Chicago Law School
University of Illinois College of Law

WHO: Student Ambassadors will be embarking on their 2nd or 3rd year of law school for the 2019-2020 academic term.

We’re looking for individuals with integrity and a respectable academic record to represent the Institute on the law school campus.

WHAT: The Student Ambassador will serve as a liaison between IICLE® and the law students at his/her school and promote the Institute on the law school campus.

Some of the Student Ambassador responsibilities will be:

- to distribute informational materials and promotional items to law students
- to engage on social media with law students about IICLE® offerings and activities happening at the Institute
- to assist representatives from the Institute on visits to the campus
- to participate in periodic surveys from the Institute

Student Ambassadors will have the opportunity to experience the following:

- networking opportunities with practicing attorneys
- networking opportunities with Student Ambassadors from other schools
an additional year of access to the Institute’s New Lawyer Starter Kit benefits, worth over $1,700 (typically limited to 2 years post-graduation)

- resume booster
- branded “swag”

WHEN: Student Ambassadors will serve throughout the 2019-20 academic term, commencing in the fall 2019 semester and ending in May 2020.

WHERE: Student Ambassadors will operate on their individual law school campuses

WHY: The Student Ambassador program was created to achieve several purposes: (1) to increase awareness among law students of the Institute’s role in supporting law students, recent graduates, and career attorneys; (2) to provide a volunteer opportunity for a law student as a first step in becoming a future IICLE® volunteer author or speaker later in his/her career; (3) to provide a networking opportunity for Student Ambassadors; and (4) to build communication between students and the Institute so that we may continue to produce current, relevant, and responsive resources for newer Illinois attorneys.

HOW: Student Ambassador applications are due any time during the academic year. We will select and inform the successful candidate as soon as they are chosen.

Requirements: Student Ambassadors must be enrolled at one of the above-listed law schools and entering their 2nd or 3rd year during the 2019-2020 academic term.

Student Ambassadors will maintain a minimum grade point average of 3.2.

Student Ambassadors will exhibit professional behavior at all events during which they represent the Institute.

Student Ambassadors agree to keep the Institute apprised of any changes to their contact information.
