

CHANGES TO FALL 2003

SCHEDULE OF CLASSES

CANCELLED COURSES/SECTIONS

Legal Drafting (section 424-053, Wednesdays, 7:35 pm).

Legal Writing 3 (section 431-018, Monday/Wednesdays, 4:00-4:55 pm).

Trial Advocacy 2 (section 558-073, Saturdays 9:00 am).

NEW COURSES ADDED TO SCHEDULE

Intellectual Property Patent Clinic. This new clinical program will be worth three credits and will meet Mondays, 4:00-5:50 pm. Adjunct Professor Robert Barrett will supervise the clinic. Students in the clinic will assist faculty and students at the Illinois Institute of Technology, the University of Illinois at Chicago, and other technology transfer or school-related companies and institutions on selected “real life” patent-related matters. Students will work with patent lawyers at Bell, Boyd, and Lloyd in providing patentability opinions, performing clearance searches, and guiding clients through the range of intellectual property legal issues that typically face start-up inventors and companies. In addition, students will make presentations to Illinois Institute of Technology faculty and students on patent issues. Prerequisites: Prior completion of Patent Law required. Because the clinic experience will involve working with technology, it is very strongly recommended that students possess a technical background, and preference will be given those students in selecting clinic participants. The clinic will be offered in both the Fall and Spring semesters; we anticipated that 3-5 students will participate each semester.

Lobbying for the Polish Community. Under the guidance of the Polish-American lawyer Christopher Kurczaba, students will research and prepare to lobby Washington legislators. There is a possibility of a trip to Washington D.C. for some students. The course will meet Tuesday at 3:00 pm, or at a time to be announced. Contact Professor Warner (312/906-5340; e-mail: RWARNER) for more information. One credit.

Building an Online Political Website. This project will be supervised by Dean Krent and Professor Warner. Contact Professor Warner (312/906-5340; e-mail: RWARNER) for more information. One credit.

OTHER CHANGES & CORRECTIONS

Business Entity Formation (Prof. B. Brown): There will be no exam in this course.

Law and Bioethics (Prof. Casonato): This course may now be taken for seminar credit. If you are interested in choosing this option, please contact Dean Sowle at ssowle@kentlaw.edu.

Section 1983/Constitutional Torts (Prof. Nahmod): The day/time of this seminar has been changed to Wednesdays, 4:00-5:50 pm.

Securities Regulation (Prof. P. Hablutz): The day of the exam for both the day and evening sections was incorrectly listed in the final schedule as Thursday, 12/19, 6:00 pm. The actual day is Friday, 12/19, 6:00 pm.

Trademarks and Unfair Competition (Prof. Dinwoodie): The exam will be a take-home rather than a scheduled exam.

Workers Compensation (Prof. Eagle): The exam will be at 6:00 pm (not 1:15 pm) on Friday, 12/12.
