The Chicago-Kent Division of the Greater Chicago UNA-USA invites you to join us on Wednesday, March 23, 2011 from 6:00-9:00 in the Chicago-Kent 10th floor event room (565 W. Adams) for its Fight Human Trafficking event. The event will feature a panel of speakers offering a variety of viewpoints of the issue. Cocktails and light appetizers will start at 6:00, with the panel beginning at 6:30.

Please RSVP to chicagokentuna@gmail.com by March 11

GUEST SPEAKERS

Rachel Durchslag, Executive Director
Chicago Alliance Against Sexual Exploitation
Rachel Durchslag founded the Chicago Alliance Against Sexual Exploitation (CAASE), an organization that works to eliminate sexual exploitation through litigation and advocacy, organizing and policy reform, and prevention and resource development.

Jennifer S. Greene, Violence Against Women Policy Advisor to Cook County State’s Attorney Anita Alvarez
Jennifer S. Greene is the Violence Against Women Policy Advisor to Cook County State’s Attorney Anita Alvarez. In this capacity, she creates and implements policy, works closely with the community, conducts training and works as part of a team leading the response to domestic violence, sex crimes and human trafficking.

Will Burns, 4th Ward Alderman
As the 26th District State Representative, Will Burns chief sponsored the Illinois Safe Children Act. This law made Illinois the first state in the nation to make all children under the age of 18 immune from prosecution for prostitution, under any circumstances.

Sehla Ashai, Anti-Trafficking Program Specialist
International Organization for Adolescents
Sehla Ashai is an Anti-Trafficking Program Specialist at the International Organization for Adolescents (IOFA). She also assists in the coordination of the Cook County Human Trafficking Task Force. Prior to her work at IOFA, Sehla worked as a staff attorney for the National Immigrant Justice Center’s Counter-Trafficking Project.

Wednesday, March 23, 2011
6:00 - 9:00 p.m.
Chicago-Kent Law School
565 W. Adams, Chicago, IL 60661
10 FL Event Room
Please RSVP to chicagokentuna@gmail.com by March 11

Co- Sponsors: Greater UNA, SHN, APALSA, BLSA, HLLSA, ILS, ILSA, NLG, WIL, KJF, CSO, & Alumni