

JOSE D. PADILLA

Jose D. Padilla has been the Associate General Counsel at IIT since 1997. In addition to copyright, he handles an array of legal issues, including bond, tort, contract, computer, employment and higher education issues. He is also the General Counsel to The IIT State Street Corporation, NFP, a not for profit Illinois corporation that owns and operates student housing.

Jose also lobbies for IIT in Washington. He has lobbied on tax, research, bioterrorism, appropriations, telecommunications, homeland security and higher education issues.

Before coming to IIT, Jose spent almost eight years in Washington, D.C. From 1990 to 1993, he was an attorney and legislative assistant for former Senator Lloyd Bentsen (D-TX.) From 1993 to 1997, he served in the Clinton Administration. He was in the Treasury Department where he served as Assistant Commissioner for Congressional and Public Affairs.