School of American Law in Kharkiv (Ukraine) is a joint project of IIT/Chicago — Kent College of Law (USA)
and ILF (Inyurpolis Law Firm, Kharkiv, Ukraine).

CHICAGO-KENT COLLEGE of LAW, the law school of the Illinois Institute of Technology, is nationally recognized for the scholarship and accomplishments of its faculty and student body. The second oldest law school in the state of Illinois, Chicago-Kent has a history marked by innovation and excellence. Chicago-Kent has always emphasized professional responsibility in the broadest sense, encompassing intellectual discipline, careful analysis, comprehensive research, and sensitivity to the needs of clients and the context in which the law operates.

ILF was founded in 1994 by scholars of the National Law Academy of Ukraine named after Yaroslav Mudryi and a group of practicing lawyers, as a firm that provides a wide variety of legal services. From the time of its establishment the firm was oriented not only at providing our clients with competent legal services, but also at offering extensive and comprehensive expertise in business consulting. Due to successful implementation of such a concept the firm earned its recognition in the business community and now is among the leaders on the legal services market in Ukraine.

The SCHOOL of AMERICAN LAW is very popular among students and practicing lawyers of the Republic of Poland: every year more than 80 students graduate from the School of American Law in Poland.

The fundamental mission of this project is to provide Ukrainian law students in their third-fifth year, practicing lawyers, businessmen, interpreters and all interested with the knowledge in the fields of American law and comparative law, to master the full range of Legal and Business English, and to obtain a master of laws (LL.M.) degree in International Business Law at the IIT/Chicago — Kent College of Law during one semester (six months).
