(a) UNMIS shall have the right to establish, install and operate United Nations radio stations under its exclusive control to disseminate to the public in Sudan information relating to its mandate. Programmes broadcast on such stations shall be under the exclusive editorial control of UNMIS and shall not be subject to any form of censorship. UNMIS will make the broadcast signal of such stations available to the state broadcaster upon request for further dissemination through the state broadcasting system. Such United Nations radio stations shall be operated in accordance with the International Telecommunication Convention and Regulations. The frequencies on which such stations may operate shall be decided upon in cooperation with the Government. If no decision has been reached fifteen (15) working days after the matter has been raised by UNMIS with the Government, the Government shall immediately allocate suitable frequencies for use by such stations. The Government shall be informed of the nature of such arrangements and shall not interfere with or apply censorship to the mail of UNMIS or its members. In the event that postal arrangements applying to private mail of members of UNMIS are extended to transfer of currency or the transport of packages and parcels, the conditions under which such operations are conducted shall be agreed with the Government.

Travel and transport

12. UNMIS, its members and contractors, together with their property, equipment, provisions, supplies, materials and other goods, including spare parts, as well as vehicles, vessels and aircraft, including the vehicles, vessels and aircraft of contractors used exclusively in the performance of their services for UNMIS, shall enjoy full and unrestricted freedom of movement without delay throughout Sudan by the most direct route possible, without the need for travel permits or prior authorization or notification, except in the case of movements by air, which will comply with the customary procedural requirements for flight planning and operations within the airspace of Sudan as promulgated and specifically notified to UNMIS by the Civil Aviation Authority of Sudan. This freedom shall, with respect to large movements of personnel, stores, vehicles or aircraft through airports or on railways or roads used for general traffic within Sudan, be coordinated with the Government. For this purpose, the Government agrees expeditiously to establish, at the request of UNMIS, temporary customs clearance facilities for UNMIS at locations in Sudan convenient for UNMIS not previously designated as official ports of entry for Sudan;

(b) The right of UNMIS to establish, maintain and operate commissaries at its headquarters, camps and posts for the benefit of the members of UNMIS, but not of locally recruited personnel. Such commissaries may provide goods of a consumable nature and other articles to be specified in advance. The Special Representative shall take all necessary measures to prevent abuse of such commissaries and the sale or resale of such goods to persons other than members of UNMIS and shall give sympathetic consideration to observations or requests of the Government concerning the operation of the commissaries;

(c) The right of UNMIS, as well as of contractors, to clear ex customs and excise warehouse, free of duty, taxes, fees and charges and free of other prohibitions and restrictions, equipment, provisions, supplies, fuel, materials and other goods, including spare parts and means of transport, which are for the exclusive and official use of UNMIS or for resale in the commissaries provided for above;

(d) The right of UNMIS, as well as of contractors, to re-export or otherwise dispose of such property and equipment, including spare parts and means of transport, as far as they are still usable, and all unconsumed provisions, supplies, materials, fuel and other goods so imported or cleared ex customs and excise warehouse which are not transferred, or otherwise disposed of, on terms and conditions to be agreed upon, to the competent local authorities of Sudan or to an entity nominated by them.

To the end that such importation, clearances, transfer or exportation may be effected with the least possible delay, a mutually satisfactory procedure, including documentation, shall be agreed between UNMIS and the Government at the earliest possible date.

Premises required for conducting the operational and administrative activities of UNMIS

16. The Government shall if possible provide without cost to UNMIS and in agreement with the Special Representative for as long as may be required such areas for headquarters, camps or other premises as may be necessary for the conduct of the operational and administrative activities of UNMIS, including the establishment of the necessary facilities for maintaining communications in accordance with paragraph 11. Without prejudice to the fact that all such premises remain territory of Sudan, they shall be inviolable and subject to the exclusive control and authority of the United Nations. The Government shall guarantee unimpeded access to such United Nations premises. Where United Nations troops are co-located with military personnel of the host country, a permanent, direct and immediate access by UNMIS to those premises shall be guaranteed.
17. The Government undertakes to assist UNMIS in obtaining and making available, where applicable, water, sewerage, electricity and other facilities free of charge, or, where this is not possible, at the most favourable rate, and free of taxes, fees and duties. Where such utilities or facilities are not provided free of charge, payment shall be made by UNMIS on terms to be agreed with the competent authority. UNMIS shall be responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of facilities so provided. In the event of interruption or threatened interruption of service, the Government undertakes to give as far as is within its powers the same priority to the needs of UNMIS as to essential government services.

18. UNMIS shall have the right, where necessary, to generate, within its premises, electricity for its use and to transmit and distribute such electricity.

19. The United Nations alone may consent to the entry of any government officials or of any other person who are not members of UNMIS to such premises.

The Government likewise agrees to grant promptly all necessary authorizations, permits and licenses required for the purchase or export of such goods, including in respect of purchase or export by contractors, free of any restrictions and without the payment of monetary contributions, duties, fees, charges or taxes.

21. The Government undertakes to assist UNMIS as far as possible in obtaining equipment, provisions, supplies, fuel, materials and other goods and services from local sources required for its subsistence and operations. In respect of equipment, provisions, supplies, fuel, materials and other goods and services purchased locally by UNMIS or by contractors for the official and exclusive use of UNMIS, the Government shall make appropriate administrative arrangements for the remission or return of any excise, tax or monetary contribution payable as part of the price. The Government shall exempt UNMIS and contractors from general sales taxes in respect of all local purchases for official use. In making purchases on the local market, UNMIS shall, on the basis of observations made and information provided by the Government in that respect, avoid any adverse effect on the local economy. In accordance with the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations, UNMIS shall, when purchasing goods and services, endeavour to give due consideration to local contractors.

22. For the proper performance of the services provided by contractors, other than Sudan nationals resident in Sudan, in support of UNMIS, the Government agrees to provide contractors with facilities for their entry into and departure from Sudan, without delay or hindrance, and for their residence in Sudan, as well as for their repatriation in time of crisis. For this purpose, the Government shall promptly issue to contractors, free of charge and without any restrictions and within forty-eight (48) hours of application, all necessary visas, licenses, permits and registrations. Contractors, other than Sudan nationals resident in Sudan, shall be accorded exemption from taxes and monetary contributions in Sudan on services, equipment, provisions, supplies, fuel, materials and other goods, including spare parts and means of transport, provided to UNMIS, including corporate, income, social security and other similar taxes arising directly from or related directly to the provision of such services or goods.

23. UNMIS and the Government shall co-operate with respect to sanitary services and shall extend to each other their fullest cooperation in matters concerning health, particularly with respect to the control of communicable diseases, in accordance with international conventions.

Recruitment of local personnel

24. UNMIS may recruit locally such personnel as it requires. Upon the request of the Special Representative, the Government undertakes to facilitate the recruitment of qualified local staff by UNMIS and to accelerate the process of such recruitment.

Currency

25. The Government shall facilitate, as necessary, the free exchange of mutually acceptable currency in local currency required for the use of UNMIS, including the pay of its members, at the prevailing commercial rate of exchange.

Special facilities will be granted by the Government for the speedy processing of entry and exit formalities for all members of UNMIS, including the military component, upon prior written notification. On departure from Sudan, members of UNMIS may, notwithstanding the above-mentioned exchange regulations, take with them such funds as the Special Representative certifies were received in pay and emoluments from the United Nations or from a participating State and are a reasonable residue thereof. Special arrangements shall be made for the implementation of the present provisions in the interests of the Government and the members of UNMIS.

The Government agrees to accept as valid, without tax or fee, a permit or license issued by the Special Representative for the operation by any member of UNMIS, including locally recruited personnel, of any UNMIS vehicles and for the practice of any profession or occupation in connection with the functioning of UNMIS, provided that no permit to drive a vehicle shall be issued to any person who is not already in possession of an appropriate and valid license.

41. The Government agrees to accept as valid, and where necessary promptly to validate, free of charge and without any restrictions, licenses and certificates already issued by appropriate authorities in other States in respect of aircraft and vessels, including those operated by contractors exclusively for UNMIS. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Government further agrees to grant promptly, free of charge and without any restrictions, necessary authorizations, licenses and certificates, where required, for the acquisition, use, operation and maintenance of aircraft and vessels.

42. Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 39, the Government further agrees to accept as valid, without tax or fee, permits or licenses issued by the Special Representative to members of UNMIS for the carrying or use of firearms or ammunition in connection with the functioning of UNMIS.

Military police, arrest and transfer of custody, and mutual assistance

43. The Special Representative shall take all appropriate measures to ensure the maintenance of discipline and good order among members of UNMIS, including locally recruited personnel. To this end, personnel designated by the Special Representative shall police the premises of UNMIS and areas where its members are deployed. Elsewhere, such personnel shall be employed only subject to arrangements with the Government and in liaison with it in so far as such employment is necessary to maintain discipline and order among members of UNMIS.

44. The military police of UNMIS shall have the power of arrest over the military members of UNMIS. Military personnel placed under arrest outside their own contingent areas shall be transferred to their contingent Commander for appropriate disciplinary action. 46. When a person is taken into custody under paragraph 44 or paragraph 45 (b), UNMIS or the Government, as the case may be, may make a preliminary interrogation, but may not delay the transfer of custody. Following such transfer, the person concerned shall be made available upon request to the arresting authority for further interrogation.

47. UNMIS and the Government shall assist each other in carrying out all necessary investigations into offences in respect of which either or both have an interest, in the production of witnesses and in the collection and production of evidence, including the seizure of and, if appropriate, the handling over of items connected with an offence. The handing over of any such items may be made subject to their return on the terms specified by the authority delivering them. Each party shall notify the other of the disposition of any case in the outcome of which the other may have an interest or in which there has been a transfer of custody under the provisions of paragraphs 44 to 46.

Safety and security

48. The Government shall ensure that the provisions of the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel are applied to and in respect of UNMIS, its members and associated personnel and their equipment and premises. In particular:

(i) the Government shall take all appropriate measures within its capabilities to ensure the safety, security and freedom of movement of UNMIS, its members and associated personnel and their property and assets. It shall take all appropriate steps, within its capabilities, to protect members of UNMIS and its associated personnel and their equipment and premises from attack or any action that prevents them from discharging their mandate. This is without prejudice to the fact that all premises of UNMIS are inviolable and subject to the exclusive control and authority of the United Nations;

(ii) if members of UNMIS or its associated personnel are captured, detained or taken hostage in the course of the performance of their duties and their identification has been established, they shall not be subjected to interrogation and they shall be promptly released and returned to United Nations or other appropriate authorities. Pending their release such personnel shall be treated in accordance with universally recognized standards of human rights and the principles and spirit of the Geneva Conventions of 1949;
(iii) the Government shall ensure that the following acts are established as crimes under its national law and make them punishable by appropriate penalties, taking into account their grave nature:

a) a murder, kidnapping or other attack upon the person or liberty of any member of UNMIS or its associated personnel;

b) a violent attack upon the official premises, the private accommodation or the means of transportation of any member of UNMIS or its associated personnel likely to endanger his or her person or liberty;

c) a threat to commit any such attack with the objective of compelling a physical or juridical person to do or to refrain from doing any act;

d) an attempt to commit any such attack; and

e) an act constituting participation as an accomplice in any such attack, or in an attempt to commit such attack, or in organizing or ordering others to commit such attack;

(iv) the Government shall establish its jurisdiction over the crimes set out in paragraph 48 (iii) above: (a) when the crime was committed on the territory of Sudan; (b) when the alleged offender is a national of Sudan; (c) when the alleged offender, other than a member of UNMIS, is present in the territory of Sudan, unless it has extradited such a person to the State on whose territory the crime was committed, or to the State of his or her nationality, or to the State of his or her habitual residence if he or she is a stateless person, or to the State of the nationality of the victim;

(v) the Government shall ensure the prosecution, without exception and without delay, of persons accused of acts described in paragraph 48 (iii) above who are present in the territory of Sudan (if the Government does not extradite them), as well as those persons that are subject to its criminal jurisdiction who are accused of other acts in relation to UNMIS or its members or associated personnel which, if committed in relation to the forces of the Government or against the local civilian population, would have rendered such acts liable to prosecution.

49. Upon the request of the Special Representative, the Government shall provide such security as necessary to protect UNMIS, its members and associated personnel and their equipment during the exercise of their functions.

Jurisdiction

50. All members of UNMIS, including locally recruited personnel, shall be immune from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts performed by them in their official capacity. Such immunity shall continue even after they cease to be members of or employed by or for UNMIS and after the expiration of the other provisions of the present Agreement.

51. Should the Government consider that any member of UNMIS has committed a criminal offence, it shall promptly inform the Special Representative and present to him any evidence available to it. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 26:
(a) if the accused person is a member of the civilian component or a civilian member of the military component, the Special Representative shall conduct any necessary supplementary inquiry and then agree with the Government whether or not criminal proceedings should be instituted. Failing such agreement the question shall be resolved as provided in paragraph 57 of the present Agreement. In the event that criminal proceedings are instituted in accordance with the present Agreement, the courts and authorities of Sudan shall ensure that the member of UNMIS concerned is brought to trial and tried in accordance with international standards of justice, fairness and due process of law, as set out in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, to which Sudan is a Party;

(b) Military members of the military component of UNMIS shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of their respective participating States in respect of any criminal offences which may be committed by them in Sudan.

52. If any civil proceeding is instituted against a member of UNMIS before any court of Sudan, the Special Representative shall be notified immediately and he shall certify to the court whether or not the proceeding is related to the official duties of such member.

(a) If the Special Representative certifies that the proceeding is related to official duties, such proceeding shall be discontinued and the provisions of paragraph 55 of the present Agreement shall apply.

(b) If the Special Representative certifies that the proceeding is not related to official duties, the proceeding may continue. In that event, the courts and authorities of Sudan shall grant the member of UNMIS concerned sufficient opportunity to safeguard his or her rights in accordance with due process of law. If the Special Representative certifies that a member of UNMIS is unable, because of his or her official duties or authorized absence, to protect his or her interests in the proceeding, the court shall, at the defendant’s request, suspend the proceeding until the elimination of the disability, but for no more than ninety (90) days. Property of a member of UNMIS that is certified by the Special Representative to be needed by the defendant for the fulfillment of his or her official duties shall be free from seizure for the satisfaction of a judgement, decision or order. The personal liberty of a member of UNMIS shall not be restricted in a civil proceeding, whether to enforce a judgement, decision or order, to compel an oath or for any other reason.

Deceased members

53. The Special Representative or the Secretary-General of the United Nations shall have the right to take charge of and dispose of the body of a member of UNMIS who dies in Sudan, as well as that member’s personal property located within Sudan, in accordance with United Nations procedures.

VII. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF THE UNITED NATIONS

54. Third party claims for property loss or damage and for personal injury, illness or death arising from or directly attributed to UNMIS, except for those arising from operational necessity, and which cannot be settled through the internal procedures of the United Nations, shall be settled by the United Nations in the manner provided for in paragraph 55 of the present Agreement, provided that the claim is submitted within six (6) months following the occurrence of the loss, damage or injury or, if the claimant did not know or could not reasonably have known of such loss or injury, within six (6) months from the time he or she had discovered the loss or injury, but in any event not later than one year after the termination of the mandate of the operation. Upon determination of liability as provided in this Agreement, the United Nations shall pay compensation within such financial limitations as have been approved by the General Assembly in its resolution 52/247 of 26 June 1998.

VIII. SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

55. Except as provided in paragraph 57, any dispute or claim of a private law character, not resulting from the operational necessity of UNMIS, to which UNMIS or any member thereof is a party and over which the courts of Sudan do not have jurisdiction because of any provision of the present Agreement shall be settled by a standing claims commission to be established for that purpose. One member of the commission shall be appointed by the Secretary-General of the United Nations, one member by the Government and a chairman jointly by the Secretary-General and the Government. If no agreement as to the chairman is reached within thirty (30) days of the appointment of the first member of the commission, the President of the International Court of Justice may, at the request of either the Secretary-General of the United Nations or the Government, appoint the chairman. Any vacancy on the commission shall be filled by the same method prescribed for the original appointment, provided that the thirty-day period there prescribed shall start as soon as there is a vacancy in the chairmanship. The commission shall determine its own procedures, provided that any two members shall constitute a quorum for all purposes (except for a period of thirty (30) days after the creation of a vacancy) and all decisions shall require the approval of any two members. The awards of the commission shall be final. The awards of the commission shall be notified to the parties and, if against a member of UNMIS, the Special Representative or the Secretary-General of the United Nations shall use his or her best endeavours to ensure compliance.

56. Disputes concerning the terms of employment and conditions of service of locally recruited personnel shall be settled by the administrative procedures to be established by the Special Representative.

57. All other disputes between UNMIS and the Government concerning the interpretation or application of the present Agreement that are not settled by negotiation shall, unless otherwise agreed by the parties, be submitted to a tribunal of three arbitrators. The provisions relating to the establishment and procedures of the claims commission shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the establishment and procedures of the tribunal. The decisions of the tribunal shall be final and binding on both parties.

58. All differences between the United Nations and the Government arising out of the interpretation or application of the present arrangements which involve a question of principle concerning the Convention shall be dealt with in accordance with the procedure set out in Section 30 of the Convention.

IX. SUPPLEMENTAL ARRANGEMENTS

59. The Special Representative and the Government may conclude supplemental arrangements to the present Agreement.
X. LIAISON

60. The Special Representative, the Force Commander and the Government shall take appropriate measures to ensure close and reciprocal liaison at every appropriate level.

XI. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

61. Wherever the present Agreement refers to privileges, immunities and rights of UNMIS and to the facilities Sudan undertakes to provide to UNMIS, the Government shall have the ultimate responsibility for the implementation and fulfilment of such privileges, immunities, rights and facilities by the appropriate local authorities.

62. The present Agreement shall enter into force immediately upon signature by or for the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the Government.

63. The present Agreement shall remain in force until the departure of the final element of UNMIS from Sudan, except that:

(a) the provisions of paragraphs 50, 53, 57 and 58 shall remain in force;

(b) the provisions of paragraphs 54 and 55 shall remain in force until all claims made in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 54 have been settled.

64. Without prejudice to existing agreements regarding their legal status and operations in Sudan, the provisions of the present Agreement shall apply to offices, funds and programmes of the United Nations, their property, funds and assets and their officials and experts on mission that are deployed in Sudan and perform functions in relation to UNMIS.

65. Without prejudice to existing agreements regarding their legal status and operations in Sudan, the provisions of the present Agreement may, as appropriate, be extended to specific specialized agencies and related organizations of the United Nations, their property, funds and assets and their officials and experts on mission that are deployed in Sudan and perform functions in relation to UNMIS, provided that this is done with the written consent of the Special Representative, the specialized agency or related organization concerned and the Government.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being the duly authorized plenipotentiary of the Government and the duly appointed representative of the United Nations, have, on behalf of the Parties, signed the present Agreement.

Done at Khartoum on the 28th day of the month of December 2005.

SUPPLEMENTAL ARRANGEMENTS
THE UNITED NATIONS MISSION IN SUDAN
AND THE GOVERNMENT OF NATIONAL UNITY OF SUDAN

The United Nations Mission in Sudan ("UNMIS") and the Government of National Unity of Sudan ("the Government") (the Parties),

Recalling the Agreement between the United Nations and Sudan Concerning the Status of the United Nations Mission in Sudan, signed at Khartoum on _____ 2005 (the "SOFA");

Recalling paragraph 59 of the SOFA that provides for supplemental arrangements,

UNMIS and the Government hereby agree as follows:

Travel and transport

1. The Parties will develop mutually acceptable procedures for determining the authenticity of the registration of UN vehicles, including motor vehicles and boats. Such procedures shall not prevent or hinder UNMIS from operating its vehicles.

Privileges and Immunities

2. The obligation of officials of the United Nations, including locally recruited personnel of UNMIS, who are nationals of Sudan, to fulfill national service requirements under the law of Sudan shall be deferred for the duration of their employment with the United Nations.

3. UNMIS agrees that when they employ local recruited personnel, who are nationals of Sudan, they shall notify the Government of when that employment begins and ends. The Government agrees, upon notification from UNMIS, to exempt the individual from national service requirements for the duration of the individual's service with UNMIS.

Entry, residence and departure

4. Upon request from UNMIS, the Government shall issue, without delay and free of charge, multiple entry visas to the SRSG and officials of the United Nations assigned to the civilian component of UNMIS, United Nations Volunteers, military observers, military liaison officers, military staff officers, United Nations civilian police and contractors. These shall be issued either at a Sudanese Embassy abroad or upon arrival in Sudan and shall be issued in a document recognized for international travel, such as a national passport, a United Nations laissez-passer or similar document issued by a competent authority.
5. Upon request from UNMIS, the Government shall issue, without delay and free of charge, multiple entry visas to UNMIS military personnel of national contingents, upon arrival, at their place of entry in Sudan.

6. The above visa issuance procedures are without prejudice to the provisions of paragraphs 35 and 36 of the SOFA and relevant privileges and immunities of the United Nations and its officials, of UNMIS and its members and contractors.

Safety and Security/Freedom of Movement

7. UNMIS recognizes that the capacity of the Government to ensure the safety and security of UN members may be affected by such notifications, or the lack thereof, as are made available to it regarding the movement of UNMIS members.

8. The parties note that paragraph 65 of the SOFA requires the written consent of all three parties referred to therein, namely: the Government; the Special Representative; and the special agency or related organization concerned, in order for the extension of the provisions of the SOFA to such agency or organization to take effect.

Final Provisions

9. Nothing contained in, or relating to, this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver, express or implied, of any immunity or of any privilege, exemption or other immunity enjoyed by the UN and its officials, UNMIS and its officials, experts on mission, or by persons performing services on behalf of UNMIS, whether pursuant to the Convention on Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations of 1946, the SOFA, any other convention, or otherwise.

10. This arrangement may be modified in writing by mutual agreement of the Parties.

11. This supplemental arrangement is without prejudice to the provisions of the SOFA. It is subject to that Agreement and is not to be understood to derogate from any of its terms.

12. This supplemental arrangement shall enter into force on the date of its signature and shall remain in force for as long as the SOFA remains in force.
