

Ms. Xiaoli Hu

Program: Financial Services Law

Address:

141 Ann St., 2S Apt.
Clarendon Hills, IL 60514

E-mail: xhu@kentlaw.edu

Beginning in 1997, Ms. Hu has been a notary at the Banking Dept. and No. 4 Dept. of Beijing Notary Public Office in Beijing. She began as a Notary Public and was promoted to Chief Notary Public. As a notary, she is mainly engaged in financial notarization, including banking, project financing, mortgage & guarantee, insurance, as well as other notarization projects, including real estate, corporation affairs, tender and bidding, auction, drawing affairs, and preservation of evidence. Previous to working as a notary, Ms. Hu was a part-time legal assistant at the Law Office of Horus L.Kai, in Beijing. There she successfully handled corporation restructuring for China Hua Cheng Group Lu Yuan Industrial Corp. and provided legal opinions for the M&A case of Tian Cheng Real Estate Development Corp.

Ms. Hu received her Bachelor's in International Economic Law from China University of Political Science and Law in 1994. In 1997, she received a Master's degree in International Economic Law from the Graduate School of China University of Political Science and Law. Her dissertation was on Regulations on Transnational M&A of Public Company. She has also undergone several training sessions both as a notary and in finance.

Ms. Hu is licensed to practice in China and is the Commissioner of Notarial Documents Reform Committee of China Notaries' Association. She is also a prolific writer, publishing 10 articles, the most recent including, "Legal Problems on Drawing Transactions" published in China Notarization in 2006, "Analysis on Notarization of Supervising On-the-Spot" published in Beijing Notarization in 2005 and "Summary on Germany's Notarization System" published in China Notarization in 2004.

Contact information in China:

Email: xiaolihu2003@yahoo.com.cn