Ms. Cai is an attorney for Grandall Legal Group in Shanghai. She works primarily in four areas: intellectual property rights, contracts, divorces and labor disputes. Most recently, she has worked on cases such as domain name and copyright disputes, trademark dispute and unfair competition. She has also worked on management contracts, credit card disputes, international divorces, and labor dispute arbitration.

Ms. Cai received her Bachelor's of Law from East China University of Political Science and Law in 2002, with a focus on civil and commercial law. While at ECUPL, Ms. Cai was able to fine tune her legal skills by work at Shanghai ChongMing Court and with local firms, including ShenJiang Law Firm and ShuSheng Law Firm. She is currently pursuing an LL.M. degree in International and Comparative Law at Chicago-Kent College of Law in partnership with the Shanghai Bar Association.

Ms. Cai is licensed to practice in China and is a member of the Shanghai Bar Association and the Chinese Bar Association. She is a member of the IPRS Committee of the Shanghai Bar Association. She has published several articles, including a reference guide for lawyers in relation to unfair competition cases, which is used in a collection by the Shanghai Bar Association. She has given seminars in the ChangShu Economic Development Zone, with a focus on how to avoid labor disputes. Ms. Cai speaks English and Chinese.
