

Ms. Qing Geng

Program: International and Comparative Law

Address:

3617 Vantage Lane
Glenview , IL 60026

E-mail: qgeng@kentlaw.edu

Ms. Geng is a paralegal for Sichuan Tohota Law Firm. She assisted in preparing case materials, including legal research in both litigation and non-litigation areas, especially related to business planning, international business transactions and Intellectual Property. Previous to her work at Sichuan Tohota, Ms. Geng was an intern at Chengdu Zhongchuan Dazhong Law Office. As an intern, she assisted the lawyers with the classification of documents, prepared written letters and other documents as well as managing all other administrative aspects relating to their case work at the time. Ms. Geng's areas of interest include business law, competition law, intellectual property law and criminal law.

Ms Geng received her Bachelor's of Law from Southwest Petroleum University in 2006. She received the Best Student Honor in 2005. She is currently pursuing a LL.M. degree in International and Comparative at Chicago-Kent College of Law.

Ms. Geng speaks Chinese, English and some Japanese.

Contact information in China:

Email: Charlene.geng@gmail.com