

Mr. Eugene L. Tan II

Program: International Intellectual Property Law

Mr. Tan is a junior associate at the Sapalo Velez Bundang & Bulilan Law Offices in Makati City, Philippines. His areas of practice include Admiralty and Maritime Law and Intellectual Property Law, particularly in the fields of Trademark and Copyright law. He is also a corporate officer and sits as a Director of the East Peninsula Realty Corporation (EPRC) and Corporate Secretary of Ang Kapisanan ng mga Seamen, Inc., (AKSI) which is a non-profit non-stock corporation dedicated to the improvement of the welfare and promotion of the interests of Filipino seafarers. Finally, he is a regular columnist for Tinig Ng Marino “Voice of the Seafarer” which is a daily news outlet that caters to the interests of Filipino seafarers world-wide.

Mr. Tan received his Bachelor’s of Law degree from the College of Civil Law at the University of Santo Tomas in 2004. He also received an A.B. from the Ateneo De Manila University in Interdisciplinary Studies in 1998. His concentration areas were English Literature and Philosophy, and his thesis was titled “A Metacriticism of the Literary Works of Father Miguel Bernad S.J.” He is currently pursuing an LL.M. in International Intellectual Property Law at Chicago-Kent College of Law.

Mr. Tan is licensed to practice in the Philippines and is a member of the Integrated Bar of the Philippines as well as the Apostleship of the Sea (AoS). He was also the assistant editor of UST law school’s textbook Constitutional Law, Notes and Readings on the Bill of Rights, Suffrage and Citizenship in 2004. He is fluent in both English and Filipino and understands basic written Latin.

Contact information in the Philippines:

Email: eugenetan2@gmail.com