Ms. Antebi was an associate attorney at Gil Bar-Zohar & Co. in Tel Aviv. While at Gil Bar-Zohar, she drafted and negotiated commercial agreements involving supply, purchase, SLA, license, real-estate, distribution, agency, development, NDA's, turnkey, service, insurance and employment. She also participated in board and shareholder meetings, as well as providing legal opinions on various corporate issues including securities regulations, real-estate, Intellectual Property and copyrights. She has experience in legal and commercial negotiations (in Hebrew and English) with both foreign and domestic companies. She also has experience litigating for civil-commercial law cases, which required her to manage cases through all of the stages, including establishing factual infrastructure, strategic approach and formulating statements of defense.

Ms. Antebi received her Bachelor's of Law from Netanya Academic College, graduating cum laude, in 2003. She also took a year of legal writing at Haifa University. She is currently pursuing an LL.M. degree in International Intellectual Property Law at Chicago-Kent College of Law.

Ms. Antebi is licensed to practice in Israel and a member of the Israeli Bar Association. She speaks English and Hebrew.
