

Ms. Ilona Arasiewicz

Address: 7429 W. Argyle Street
Harwood Heights, IL 60706

E-mail: iarasiewicz@kentlaw.edu

Ms. Arasiewicz has worked as a legal assistant of Wojciech Nosek (disciplinary spokesman for district chamber of legal advisers) in Warsaw, Poland. While cooperating with Wojciech Nosek, she prepared legal documents, including legal projects in the area of property rights, and she was involved in the practice of corporate law. Prior to her time in Warsaw, Ms. Arasiewicz was an attorney assistant at T. Sikora Law Office, where she focused on general help with legal affairs, and researched various legal issues, in particular civil law. She was also an intern in the Law Department of ING-Silesian Bank where she prepared contracts based on civil and economic law. She also supervised the Bank contracts and prepared information about new legal acts.

Ms. Arasiewicz received her Master's degree in 2003 in Civil Law at Silesian University in Katowice, Faculty of Law, Poland. Her Masters thesis was focused on civil and commercial law "The Property Option in Leasing Agreement". She was also awarded a fellowship from Silesian University for her high grades in her legal studies. She is currently pursuing an LL.M in Financial Services Law at Chicago-Kent College of Law.

While at the Silesian University in Katowice, Ilona Arasiewicz participated in a pro-bono Legal Aid Project where students had an opportunity to provide legal services to those with financial problems. She speaks Polish, English and French.

Contact information in Poland:

E-mail: ilonaarasiewicz20@wp.pl