

Mr. Sultan Abdulsalam

Program: Financial Services

Your local address: 2734 S Wentworth Ave #202
Chicago, IL 60616

E-mail: sabdulsa@iit.edu

Mr. Abdulsalam worked as a legal advisor for two years in Yasser Baker Gazzaz Law Firm while studying in law school at King Abdul-Aziz University in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. He also worked as a legal trainer for six months at the same law firm. After that, he worked with the Saudi Capital Market Authority and joined the Fresh Graduate Program at the Cass Business School where he enrolled in general and business-specific English language courses at the Cass Business School.

Sultan has worked in numerous fields such as Islamic and regular criminal law cases, labor law, civil (Shariah) law, commercial and securities laws. Moreover, he can draft different contracts in these fields. He has completed several courses in his specialty at the City University in London such as Saudi Criminal Procedures, Saudi Civil Procedures, E-Commerce with comparative study in Shariah and Law, How to Be a Successful Lawyer and Legal Advisor, Drafting Contracts, and Foundations of British Judicial System. As for administration courses, he attended short seminars such as Work Ethics, Efficient Communication Skills, Presentation Skills, Writing and Organizing Reports. Further, he also possesses the International Computer Driver License (ICDL).

Sultan is an authorized training lawyer and legal advisor in 2005. He has written four published articles. One is Vision and opinion how to create an effective law school in Saudi Arabia (2004), Solicitor and Barrister under the British Law (2006) Market Manipulation (Comparative study between Saudi, American, and British Law (2007). He is currently preparing an article about In-House Counsel Responsibilities in Joint Stock Company (Comparative study between Saudi and American law) to be published early this year.

Contact Information in Home Country:

K.S.A, Jeddah, Alzahra 2 dist, Adeem Alsoloubi st, Villa 21
Cell phone: 00966505665214

E-mail: advisorsultan@hotmail.com, emperoroflaw@gmail.com