

Ms. Tailai Jiang

Program: LL.M. Financial Services Law

Address: 3140 S. Michigan Ave, Apt 708
Chicago

E-mail: tjiang1@kentlaw.edu

Phone: (312)404-8696

Ms. Jiang served as an assistant attorney for the Grand Law Firm, which is located in China. She also gained experience in the district court as a clerk assisting the judges.

Ms. Jiang was a double major in both Civil and Commercial Law and Finance at the East China University of Political Science and Law (ECUPL). Each term, she was awarded the Second-Class and Third-Class Scholarship. Her GPA reached 3.6 and her overall GPA ranked her in the top 3% of over 2000 students. At Chicago-Kent College of Law, Ms. Jiang is enrolled in the Financial Services Law LL.M. program and will graduate in the spring of 2009.

Her thesis is titled “How to Protect the Rights and Benefits of the Medium and Small Shareholders,” was published in the periodical Law and Economy in China. She was awarded the first prize in the legal thesis competition by her university. Ms. Jiang also received the third prize in the investigation report competition in her first semester of law school and was awarded the winner’s prize in the investigation report competition during her second semester. Ms. Jiang continues to improve her legal research skills by enrolling in courses focused on research and writing.

Ms. Jiang endeavors to maintain a well-balanced lifestyle. This past summer, she served as a volunteer at the 2008 Special Olympic Games in Shanghai. Additionally, during her summer and winter vacations, she has worked as an intern in several corporations as well as with the Chinese district courts.

Contact information in China:

No. 19 BeiYuan Road, Building 4, Apt 305,
Suzhou, Jiangsu Province, 215001, China

E-mail: jtl3077@gmail.com, jtl3077@live.cn