For nearly a year, Ms. Grelier worked as a trainee lawyer at UGGC & Associés, Lawfirm, in Paris. At UGGC & Associés, she worked in the Competition law department where she wrote memos on competition matters, contributed to drafting contracts and preparing defense in competition litigation. She also worked on competition audits and distribution agreements and prepared conferences on various competition issues. Before her internship at UGGC & Associés, Ms. Grelier was a trainee for five months within the DG Economic and Financial Affairs at the European Commission. During her traineeship, she drafted contribution agreements related to project financing and gave legal advice on state aid issues.

Ms. Grelier studied Law at the University of Poitiers, France, where she obtained top grade honors. She continued her legal education at the University Paris-Dauphine, Paris, where she specialized in European and International business law, with a specific focus on competition law and single market law. She graduated in 2007 and received Upper second class honors. She also passed the Paris Bar Exam in 2006 and attended the Paris Bar School. She is currently pursuing an LL.M. in International and Comparative law at Chicago-Kent College of Law, focusing mainly on Antitrust and Unfair competition.

Ms. Grelier was a member of her Master Program's Students Association at the University Paris-Dauphine. While at the European Commission, she was also a member of the Stagiaire Committee and she gave French lessons to other trainees of the European institutions. Ms. Grelier speaks French and English and has basic knowledge of German.
