Before she started graduate studies, Ms. Hu assisted judges with various civil cases. During college, she helped with contract disputes in the trial court of the PRC and received practical experience in writing Chinese legal documents and civil procedure practice. Ms. Hu also worked as a business assistant at Langge Law Firm and then as part of a clerkship, she was a legal assistant in Huamao & Guigu Law Firm in Beijing, China in 2006 and 2007. During her clerkship, Ms. Hu honed her communication and legal writing skills by helping the firms with marketing and legal affairs in which she specialized in corporation formation, Merger and Acquisition, and overseas investment. As campus CEO of Coca Cola Company at the University of International Business and Economics, China from April-June 2007, Ms. Hu enriched her real-life experience of working as a team leader in the business environment and helped to solidify her ambition to become a corporate lawyer.

Ms. Hu received her Bachelor's degree from the University of International Business and Economics in China. She earned scholarships each academic year and was awarded the honor of "Excellent Law School Student" when she graduated in July, 2008. Ms. Hu enrolled in the International and Comparative Law LLM program at Chicago-Kent College of Law before she graduated from college in 2008. She earned a GPA of 3.9/4.0 in the four Chicago-Kent courses she took in the first semester. Her current studies at Chicago-Kent College of Law concentrate on commercial law and corporation legal fields. Ms. Hu is also interested in studying Intellectual Property Law.

Ms. Hu was a member of the Law Association during college and served as a core member of the law school debate team. She was the Vice President of the Art Department of the Student Union at University and was also the class monitor for two and a half year before graduation. Ms. Hu's graduation thesis is "A Study of Minority Shareholders Protection in Management Buyouts". The thesis discusses the current status and upcoming issues of China's management buyout laws as well as the related laws in the US legal system. Ms Hu also offered advice and proposals as to the perfection of Chinese MBO laws. Ms. Hu speaks fluent Chinese and English and she is learning Spanish.
