

Mr. Hong Liang

Program: International and Comparative Law

Address:

E-mail: lhong@kentlaw.edu

Phone: 312-662-2821

Mr. Hong joined Shanghai Everbright Law Firm in 1999 and is currently a senior partner as well as the vice chief partner. Mr. Hong specializes in various legal fields such as Mergers and Acquisitions, Assets Reorganization and Restructuring of State-owned Enterprises, Overseas IPO, Debt to Equity Transfers, Chain-Store and Franchises, and IP Protection. After graduating, Mr. Hong held an office at Shanghai Municipal Government.

Mr. Hong graduated from East China University of Political Science and Law. Now he is pursuing an LLM in International and Comparative Law at Chicago Kent.

Mr. Hong was a representative of Congress for the 7th and 8th Session of Hongkou District as well as a committee member of the Hongkou District Youth League.

Mr. Hong is currently a member of the Law Association for Asia-Pacific, a member of the Shanghai Law Society and the Shanghai Bar Association of Lawyers. He is the secretary-general of the Corporate Law Research Institute of East China University of Political Science and Law. He is an advanced Legal Aid worker in Shanghai and an advanced Judicial Administration worker in Hongkou District. Mr. Hong was also specially invited to be a researcher at the Research Center of Land and Residential Laws and Policies at his alma matter. Mr. Hong has also published a number of articles of academic research in professional newspaper, magazines and websites, such as the Shanghai Law Research, Comments of Company Law, Shanghai Legal News, Democracy and Legal System, Business and Law, Shanghai Lawyer as well as the website ACLA.org.cn. Mr. Hong speaks English and Chinese.

Contact information in China:

Mobile:13901858589

Email:hongliang@everbrightlaw.com

Phone:86-21-54035228