Ms. Li received her Bachelors degree at the Chinese University of International Business and Economics in 2008. During these years, Ms. Li acquired basic knowledge and mastered relevant specialized knowledge in the areas of international trade, insurance, money, and banking.

During college, Ms. Li had an internship at the People's Court of Beijing, in the Chaoyang Division, where she served as an assistant to numerous judges. In this capacity, she drafted legal memoranda, organized evidence, and observed court proceedings. Ms. Li also mailed summons, maintained the judge's schedule, and organized and delivered files to the Higher People's Court of Beijing. Ms Li also worked at the Li Xiaobin Law firm as a legal assistant to the firm's senior attorney. The position required her to draft pleadings, research contractual issues, conduct client intake interviews, prepare documents for real estate class action suits, and research and draft a speech outline on Chinese property law.

Ms Li also acquired other experiences with the Zhongjia Certified Public Accountants Co., Ltd. She assisted with the company's audit work, reviewed accounting statements, and drafted inventory reports of Dicastal Corporation and the China International Trust and Investment Company.

Ms Li speaks Chinese and English.
