Ms. Xiang received her Bachelor's degree from the University of International Business and Economics in China. During the summer holidays of college, she assisted judges with numerous civil cases in the People's Intermediate Court of China. In this capacity, Ms. Xiang learned to draft rulings in civil and criminal cases, research and draft legal memoranda, organized files, and also observed court proceedings and delivered summons. She also managed the judge's schedule and interviewed witnesses. The experience provided her practical experience in writing Chinese legal documents and practicing Chinese civil procedure. The position also allowed her to work as a legal assistant at Langge Law Firm in Beijing.

After graduating from UIBE, Ms. Xiang enrolled in the International and Comparative Law LL.M. program at Chicago-Kent College of Law. She currently is concentrating on Commercial Law and other corporate legal fields; with an interest in Intellectual Property rights.

Ms. Xiang speaks fluent Chinese and English.
