

Ms. Olta Andoni

Program: International Intellectual Property Law

E-mail: oandoni@kentlaw.edu

Ms. Andoni is a European lawyer who has relocated to the Chicago area. She holds a bachelor's degree from Tirana Law School in Albania. Ms. Andoni has proven experience with litigation of copyright claims. Her area of expertise is concentrated in Copyright Law and Intellectual Property Rights. She worked as an Executive Legal Analyst for the Italian NGO "Lady of Good Council," centered in Rome, Italy. Ms. Andoni has demonstrated strong leadership skill in the field of NGO management by drafting communication strategy in the legal department.

Ms. Andoni taught as an adjunct faculty member teaching Business Law in the Tirana Business School. She also specialized in legal research in "Istituto Dell'Immacolata," in Roma, Italy.

Ms. Andoni is a 2009 candidate in the LL.M. Program, majoring in the International Intellectual Property Law. Her interests include Trademark Law, Copyright Law and International Intellectual Property Law.

Ms. Andoni is a member of the Tirana Bar Association. She is actively involved in the community life. She helps in her daughters' school serving as first Vice President, in charge of special events, grade level requests, and membership. Ms. Andoni lives in Naperville, with her daughters and husband.

Ms. Andoni speaks English, Albanian, Italian, and has basic knowledge of French.

E-mail: oandoni@kentlaw.edu