

Ms. Fernanda Martinez

Program: International Intellectual Property

Address:

708 West Bittersweet Ave.
Apt. #501
Chicago, IL 60613

E-mail: fmartinez@kentlaw.edu

Phone: (312)2034892

Ms. Martinez most recently worked for the largest Intellectual Property Firm in Caracas, Venezuela - Bolet & Terrero. She was the junior lawyer in the litigation department where she wrote opposition writs, memoranda concerning trademarks infringement cases, legal opinions, assisted in disputes concerning the protection of various landmark and geographical domains that included researching different areas of law, attended arbitration hearings, and prepared memoranda and transactional documents. She was also in charge of filing the priority affidavits for all the Patents in the Venezuela Trademark Office.

She also worked as a legal assistant from 2005-2007 in the law firm of Runden McClosky where she handled all trademark registration procedures, writs of opposition on trademark infringements cases, contacted clients, drafted contracts (agency and licensing agreements, transactions, and leases), formed corporations, private interest foundation and prepared due diligence reports. Ms. Martinez researched and assisted attorneys in joint ventures, legal matters concerning offshore companies, and disputes at the administrative level concerning a Mining Corporation. She handled all procedures at the Administrative level, including an assortment of government ministries, registration offices and other public agencies. She also worked as in intern for the litigation department of a small firm from 2004 to 2005.

Ms Martinez graduated from the Universidad Catolica Andres Bello, Venezuela in 2007. She is currently pursuing an LL.M. in International Intellectual Property Law at Chicago-Kent College.

Ms. Martinez is licensed to practice in Venezuela, and speaks Spanish and English.

Contact information in Venezuela:

E-mail: fermartinez19@gmail.com
Phone: 111-111-11111