

Mr. Haitao Sha

Program: International Intellectual Property Law

Phone: 312-730-2449

Address: 575 W. Madison ST. Apt. 2-1704,
Chicago, IL 60661

E-mail: hsha@kentlaw.edu

Mr. Sha is an attorney of law at Watson & Band Law Offices, a famous intellectual property law firm in China. He has ten years legal experience. Mr. Sha has focused his practice on intellectual property, international investment, and mergers and acquisitions. He also specializes in litigation cases and non-litigation cases regarding patent, trademark, copyright, unfair competition and trade secrets. Mr. Sha has dealt with many intellectual property cases with influence in China including Microchip Technology Incorporated v. Shanghai Haier IC., Ltd; Singapore Crocodile International v. Lacoste; Schneider v. Shanghai Meilan Rilan Company; Swiss Foxtown v Shanghai Foxtow. Prior to being a lawyer, Mr. Sha was a judge in the People's Court of China.

Mr. Sha received his Bachelor degree of Law in 1996. In 1998, he received qualification as a judge. In 2001, he received qualification as a lawyer. In 2002, he received his Masters degree of Law from the Intellectual Property School of Shanghai University. Mr. Sha participated in common law professional training at Holman Fenwick & Willan law firm in Hong Kong in 2006 and in 2007, he took part in the intellectual property and international trade professional training at the Washington D.C. office of Baker & McKenzie LLP.

Mr. Sha has been a member of the Shanghai Bar Association Intellectual Property Committee for the past four years and has served as the secretary of the Committee. He is also a member of the Shanghai Law Society and a visiting researcher at the Intellectual Property Center of Shanghai University. He has participated in numerous research projects on intellectual property in China. His main publications include: The Principal Theory of Intellectual Property Rights (Intellectual Property Press, 2006); Research on Regulations of Patent Misuse (Intellectual Property Press, 2006); The Intellectual Property Rights in Information Age (High Education Press, 2003); Patent Protection for the Computer Software Related to Business Methods (The Electronic Intellectual Property Journal, 2003).

Mr. Sha speaks Chinese, English, and has basic knowledge of Japanese.

Contact information in China: shahaitao@vip.sina.com