

Ms. Ping-An Shih

Address: 1130 S. Michigan Ave. Chicago, IL 60605

E-mail: pshih@kentlaw.edu

In College, Ms. Shih was a leader of the Fundamental Legal Education Service Team for 1 ½ years. She organized a series of legal education activities with the cooperation of the ToSun Organization in Taiwan. In addition, she worked with officers of the Taiwan Intellectual Property Office (TIPO) to design legal courses in Copyright Law and helped the TIPO to popularize the concept and significance of intellectual property (IP) protection.

Ms. Shih received her Bachelor of Law Degree at SooChow University, Taiwan in 2008. At school, she studied basic American law using the Socratic teaching method. She was awarded scholarships seven times based on her academic performances. Ms. Shih is currently pursuing an LL.M.degree in International Intellectual Property Law at Chicago-Kent College of Law.

While at SooChow University, Ms. Shih was a member of the Fundamental Legal Education Service Society offering basic law education for elementary students and lecturing on various legal-related topics at junior and senior high schools. Ms. Shih speaks Mandarin, Taiwanese, English and has basic knowledge of Japanese. She is now a member of the Intellectual Property Legal Society (IPLS) at Chicago-Kent College of Law.

Contact Information in Taiwan:
No.39 Zihciang St. Sinjhuang City
Taipei, Taiwan 24247
E-mail: connieshih0724@gmail.com