

Ms. Jilin Xue

Address: 555 W. Madison St. #1410
Chicago, IL 60661

E-mail: jxue1@kentlaw.edu

Ms. Xue is an IP counselor of a global Corporation in China. She is in charge of IPR Management where she supervises the international patent enforcement; analyzes the IPR risk of states or regions related to markets outside China, directs foreign R&D institute of IPR matters and coordinates IPR affairs between the parent company and its overseas subsidiary company.

Ms. Xue received her Bachelor's of Electronic Engineering from Harbin Institute of Technology in 1994. She was a Three-Time Excellent Student Scholarship Winner.

Ms. Xue is a patent agent in China, and is a Member of the National IP Strategy Formulation Leading Group Office (NIPSO) in 2005. She has published essays and presentations in the area of IP and EE including: "Thoughts and Recommendations on the Establishment a more Efficient and Less Costly and Patent System" published on "CHINA PATENTS & TRADEMARKS" No.2 2008; "The IPR Strategy for Multinational Corporation," presented at JETRO (Japan External Trade Organization) on Jan. 29th, in Guangzhou; "How PCT Better Meets the Need of Chinese Applicants", presented at the "PCT China" conference organized by WIPO in cooperation with the State Intellectual Property Office of the People's Republic of China in Beijing on December 3 to 5, 2007; "Identical invention in Different Patents" First published in "Intellectual Property" awarded in 2004 with "China Intellectual Property Society" nominated prize; in addition, awarded in 2006 as the "Enterprise Intellectual Property stratagem excellence thesis" by the Intellectual Property Office of Shenzhen Municipality; "Effect of Drawings of Prior Patent Application Document on Patent for Design" First published in "CHINA PATENTS & TRADEMARKS" No.1 2004; "Recommended Revision of the Provisions of Patent Laws Relating to Designs of Products in Set" First published by "CHINA PATENTS & TRADEMARKS" No.2 2004; and "Design & Development of Power Bureau MIS Based on Ethernet" First published by "NORTH EASTERN ELECTRIC POWER" No.4 1998

Contact information in China:

xunjilin@hotmail.com