

Mr. Liang Zhang

Phone: 312-662-2101

E-Mail: lzhang@kentlaw.edu

Mr. Zhang is a junior partner at HFG Law Firm, a leading IP firm in Shanghai, China. HFG provides services to a number of Fortune 500 public and private multinational companies. At HFG Mr. Zhang focuses on Intellectual Property Litigation and Foreign Direct Investment. Mr. Zhang has worked on cases with international influence and the cases have been published in China Supreme People's Court Annual Case Book. Before joining HFG, he served at the Grandall Legal Group as a legal assistant dealing with banking law, non-performing debts, mergers and acquisitions, as well as working on Initial Public Offerings for his clients in Hong Kong and Singapore.

In 2005, Mr. Zhang received his Bachelor's degree in international economic law, ranking in the top 10% at East China University of Politics and Law (ECUPL). He earned a scholarship every year and a variety of honors and titles such as "three-virtue student" and "excellent cadre student". After graduation, he was admitted to the LLM program of China RENMIN University, a prestigious law school in China. He is currently pursuing another LLM degree in Intellectual Property Law at Chicago-Kent College of Law.

Mr. Zhang is licensed to practice in China, and is a member of the Shanghai Bar Association. While in college, he served as the Chairman of Shanghai Student Legal Aid Union. Mr. Zhang speaks Mandarin, Shanghainese and English.

Contact Information in China:

14/F, No.969 Wuding Road,
Jing'an District
Shanghai, 200040,China
Phone: 86 21 13651949761;
Email: scholar525@163.com; kzhang@hfgip.com