

Dear Members of the LL.M. Class of 2010:

Welcome to Chicago-Kent College of Law! I am pleased that you have decided to join us this fall and I look forward to welcoming you to the law school in August.

In order to help you prepare for the start of classes and for life as a student in Chicago, this mailing includes important information about tuition, orientation, health insurance, and other matters. There are important forms that must be filled out and returned to the appropriate office. Some of these forms require immediate action while others simply provide helpful information. The following items are included:

When should you plan to arrive Chicago? For those students who will attend the Legal English Course, classes start promptly at 9:30 AM on Monday morning, August 3, 2009. All incoming LL.M. students are invited to register for this class, which will offer everyone a chance to improve their speaking and writing skills before Law classes start. Mandatory orientation for all LL.M. students begins Monday, August 17, 2009. Please note: You must bring your passport, visa and all other official documentation regarding your immigration status with you on Monday August 17, 2009.

A tentative schedule for orientation week is enclosed. Rooms marked TBA will be identified in the final schedule which you will receive when you arrive for Orientation. Law classes start on Monday, August 24, 2009.

I look forward to meeting you in August. In the meantime, if you have any questions about anything in this mailing or any other issues, please be sure to call Hilary Waldron at the Office of International Law and Policy (312) 906-5134. You can also reach our office via e-mail at intllm@kentlaw.edu, and the fax number is (312) 906 – 5355.

Sincerely,

Lydia Lazar
