

June 2009

Dear LL.M. Class of 2010:

We are busy getting ready for your arrival in Chicago and are looking forward to meeting you all in August. As you prepare for your time at Chicago-Kent College of Law, let me take a moment to invite you to participate in our two-week intensive Summer Legal English Course.

The Summer Legal English Course familiarizes students with English language writing and terminology in the field of law. The content of this course is specifically designed to help students acquire the skills necessary to succeed in “American style law school,” and we strongly recommend that all incoming LL.M students take this course if possible.

Summer Legal English will take place from Monday, August 3, 2009 to Friday, August 14, 2009. The cost for the course is the $1850.00, payable on or before August 3, 2009. While your visa program start date is Monday August 24th, you are eligible to enter the country 30 days in advance. Thus, you will have plenty of time to arrive in the United States, get settled, and take part in the Legal English Course before Mandatory Orientation begins on Monday August 17.

If you are interested in joining the Summer Legal English Course, please contact Hilary Waldron at hwaldron@kentlaw.edu as soon as possible.

Have a terrific summer – see you in August!

Sincerely,

Lydia Lazar
