Questions 13-18

Lawyers are held to the highest ethical standards. The failure to disclose an act or event such as the ones described below is often more significant, and leads to more serious consequences, than the act or event itself. Failure to provide truthful answers, or failure to inform the Office of International Law and Policy of any changes in your answers, may result in revocation of admission or disciplinary action of the College of Law. An affirmative response does not necessarily prejudice your admission to Chicago-Kent.

13. Have you ever been found guilty of, or pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to, or is any charge now pending against you concerning any offense other than a minor traffic or parking violation? (A "minor traffic violation is a violation for which only a citation was issued, e.g. speeding. You must report any other traffic offense, including any offense in which acting under the influence of a drug or alcohol was an element of the offense.)
