

INTRODUCTION TO THE AMERICAN
LEGAL SYSTEM
FOR UNDERGRADUATE LAW
STUDENTS

Chicago-Kent College of Law

Program C:

July 26 – July 30, 2010

Why Study in America Now?

- We have an exciting new president of our 200+ year old of multicultural democracy, you can learn about common law legal principles, and you can meet and get to know Americans.
- We have a vibrant public intellectual discourse with many different voices participating, and students can actively engage the issues associated with the intersection of legal rights, civil liberties, and national security

Summer Program

- Introduction to American Legal Concepts and American History and Culture
- Classes taught by Chicago-Kent faculty
- Program Cost and Dates:
 - Cost is $1250 per student , plus $125 incidental expenses
 - Arrival July 24/25 2010
 - Departure July 31, 2010

Summer 2010

- This special summer program will
 - give students an overview of the American legal system,
 - introduce them to important concepts in American law, and
 - offer many interesting field trips and excursions

Academic Program

Academic course:

- * Introduction to American Legal Concepts and American History and Culture

Field trips such as:

- * Excursions to a court and a major financial institution such as the Board of Trade and the Federal Reserve Bank.

Visits to cultural institutions such as:

- * Museums, Navy Pier, a Chicago River boat cruise, and a baseball game.

What is included in the price?

- COURSE PRICE WILL INCLUDE:
 - course tuition and course materials
 - housing in campus dormitories, plus linens
 - all food expenses
 - all field trip expenses (baseball game, museums, courts, Federal Reserve Bank, Architectural boat cruise, Navy Pier)
 - transportation to and from the Chicago airport

What is NOT included in the price?

- Airfare to and from Chicago
- Personal travel expenses in Chicago
- Medical insurance (required—see PDF for requirements and the following slide for a suggested provider)
- Other personal expenses

Medical Insurance Option

- One option is Travelers Insurance through the U.S. Travelers Insurance Service
- Cost Per Month: $81.00 (approximately)
- Aggregated Lifetime Maximum Benefit: $100,000.00 per injury or illness
- Deductible: $250.00
- Go to:
<http://www.buyamericaninsurance.com/health/international/visitor.jsp>
 - Click the 'Visit USA' Insurance Plan

Come to Chicago in Summer 2010

- Chicago – an exciting city in the heartland of America
- Chicago-Kent – a progressive and innovative law school located in the heart of the city
- Study Law and Have Fun too!
- Chicago has many important museums, two baseball stadiums, beautiful lakefront beaches, interesting bars and music clubs, friendly people

Come to Chicago in 2010

CONTACT CHICAGO-KENT

- Program dates: July 26– July 30, 2010
- Program fee: $1250
- Incidental expenses: $125 (estimate)
- Contact Ms. Hilary Waldron at hwaldron@kentlaw.edu