

The Chicago-Kent Chapters of the Federalist Society

Federalist Society

& National Lawyers Guild

Cordially Invites Chicago-Kent Law Students to a tavern debate on the topic of:

Captured terrorists are treated too well by the United States & U.S. citizens are losing their rights for the sake of the "War on Terrorism."

The Motion to be Debated:

"Terrorists captured by the United States have no right to: trial in a United States court of law, right to demand a writ of habeas corpus, or any other protections guaranteed civilian prisoners.
Further, the government should act to prevent terrorism via narrowly tailored actions so as to minimize the loss of freedom Americans will endure..."

Monday February 25, 2002

6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

10th Floor Event Room

Alcoholic & Non-alcoholic Refreshments will be served

Neither the Federalist Society nor National Lawyers Guild endorses the view of the advocates, both organizations are sponsoring the event in order to open the market place of ideas and ensure a balanced debate.

http://www.kentlaw.edu/student_orgs/fedsoc/

This Event is open to Law Students Only (A valid law school I.D. will be required for admission)