SECOND-YEAR STUDENTS (2000 Entrants)

Advanced Research and Legal Drafting

Second-year Day Division students must register for either Advanced Research or Legal Drafting – whichever course you are not taking in the current Fall semester. (Please note: You are not permitted to take both Advanced Research and Legal Drafting in the same semester.) Alternatively, you may take a combined 3-credit Legal Drafting/Research section, which will satisfy your second-year writing requirement. If you have already taken Advanced Research or Legal Drafting, you are permitted to take a combined section in satisfaction of the other course requirement. Enrollment in each section is limited to 15 students. If you are not admitted into the section you choose during the initial registration period, register for another section during the add/drop period. Students in the Labor and Employment Law Certificate Program should register for one of the sections of the special combined course listed below and on the Evening Division schedule. Students in the Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution Program (LADR) are exempt from Advanced Research and Legal Drafting. The Advanced Research requirement (but not the Legal Drafting requirement) is waived for students who complete two semesters of Law Review or who take Appellate Advocacy as part of the Moot Court program.

Enrollment in each section is limited to 15 students. If you are not admitted into the section you choose during the initial registration period, register for another section during the add/drop period. Students in the Labor and Employment Law Certificate Program should register for one of the sections of the special combined course listed below and on the Day Division schedule. TRIAL ADVOCACY

Most Trial Advocacy sections will meet in the Daley Civic Center; some will meet in the Law School courtroom. For both Trial Advocacy 1 and 2, there are several sections in each time slot. Your section and instructor will be assigned by the Registrar. In addition to the basic Trial Advocacy 1 and 2 courses, we are also offering a special Litigation Technology course in the Spring that will focus on integrating technology into trial practice, and an Intellectual Property Trial Advocacy course. See the Day and Evening Division Elective Course listings for these two courses.
